

LAKE COUNTY BOARD OF HEALTH
ADVISORY COMMITTEE APPLICATION

John (Jack) Schwall
Name		Home Phone
		Cary
Home Address		City
Illinois	60013	McHenry
State	Zip	County
J.A. Schwall Well & Pump Service, Inc.		President
Place of Employment		Title
1450 Sanders Road		Northbrook
Address		City
Illinois	60062	Cook
State	Zip	County
847-272-0534
Business Phone

Community activities, including offices held:

Participated in the IAGP booth at seminars during Ground Water Awareness Week in Peoria and DeKalb. Met with Illinois Senators in Springfield to discuss Geothermal Well Drilling Legislation.

Professional Activities/Organizations, including offices held:

Illinois Association of Groundwater Professionals (IAGP)
Recipient of the "Jack Sisson" excellence award from IAGP in 2012

I am interested in the following committee(s):

Lake County Health Department's Environmental Health Advisory Committee (EHAC)

Please state why you are interested in the appointment:

Having 43 years of experience in the water well industry, I can provide input into the issues relating to the water wells in Lake County and help to protect this valuable resource.

John (Jack) J. Schwall

██████████
Cary, Illinois 60013

██████████ 847-272-0534 (business)

██████████
wellpumps@sbcglobal.net

Career Objective

President of J.A. Schwall Well & Pump Service, a second generation family owned and operated water well drilling business. The business was originally founded in 1947 by his parents, Joseph A. and Louise Schwall. Jack continues to carry on the family tradition of quality, expert work and customer service.

Summary of Qualifications

- Expert in the water well industry
- Successful business executive
- Involved in daily operations of the business
- Provides consultation to various village and county officials and community organizations
- Participates regularly in continuing education
- Active in the Illinois Association of Groundwater Professionals (IAGP)

Professional Experience

J.A. Schwall Well & Pump Service, Inc.

President; July 1986 – Present

- Owner and operator of the business
- Expert in designing and engineering water systems to meet client needs
- Drills, maintains and repairs residential and light commercial well systems in northern Cook, Lake, southeast McHenry and northern DuPage
- Provide consultation to various community entities
- Active in IAGP and continues to advance knowledge of the water well industry

J.A. Schwall Well & Pump Service, Inc.

Associate - August 1972 – July 1986

- Participated in the daily operations and activities of the business

Education and License

- Licensed Water Well and Pump Installation Contractor - Illinois Department of Public Health
1982 – Present
License #102-002789
- Attends annual educational seminars provided by the IAGP

Professional Organizations and Community Activities

- Illinois Association of Groundwater Professionals (IAGP): member 1972 - Present
- Participated in IAGP booths at seminars during Water Awareness Week in Peoria and DeKalb
- Advised Illinois State Senators on geothermal well drilling legislation
- Provides input to the current Illinois Water Well Code

Acknowledgements

- 2012 “Jack Sisson” award for industry excellence
- Featured in several local newspaper articles in Cook and McHenry Counties