

John C. Landgraf

Experience

Abbott Laboratories

Abbott Nutrition

Executive Vice President

January 2011 to April 2013 (Retired)

- o Responsible for the global nutritional business, which includes over 16,000 employees and sales over $6.5 billion. Involves commercial, operations, R&D and all support functions.

Global Pharmaceutical Operations

Senior Vice President Manufacturing & Supply

August 2004 to January 2011

- o Responsible for global pharmaceutical operations, which includes over 10,000 employees and 30 manufacturing plants around the world. Had responsibility for manufacturing, supply chain, quality and engineering. Supported over $18 billion in sales in over 130 countries,

Medical Products Group

Vice President Quality Assurance and Compliance

December 2003 to August 2004

- o Responsible for global quality assurance and compliance for all of the Medical Products Group which includes 28 plants that produce nutritionals, diagnostics, and medical and animal health products. Support Medical Product sales of approximately $6 billion in over 130 countries

Abbott Diagnostics Division

Vice President, Operations

June 2002 to December 2003

- o Responsible for global diagnostic operations, which includes over 5000 employees and 13 plants. Had manufacturing, distribution, materials management, quality, regulatory, and medical responsibility for the entire division. Supported diagnostic sales of approximately $3 billion in over 130 countries.

Corporate Engineering Division

Vice President, Corporate Engineering

November 2000 to June 2002

- o Led global organization comprising more than 2000 employees and with an annual operating budget greater than $400MM and capital budget between $750 to $1,000MM.
- o Responsible for Quality Assurance, global Environmental, Health & Safety, Finance, Human Resources, Maintenance, Housekeeping, Development Shop and Site Services.

Abbott International Division

Division Vice President of Operations

April 1997 to November 2000

- o Led international manufacturing organization, comprising more than 6000 employees, operating 23 Plants in 18 different countries, producing Pharmaceutical, Hospital and Nutritional Products. Managed the distribution of product to support over $4 billion in sales in over 130 countries.

Chemical and Agricultural Products Division

Divisional Vice President, Commercial Operation

June 1994 to April 1997

- o Responsible for worldwide sales, marketing and R&D for three separate businesses; Agricultural Products, Animal Health Products and Bulk Pharmaceuticals.
- o Managed more than 175 people, budget of $50MM, and sales of more than $330MM.

Vice President, Chemical Business Unit

October 1992 to June 1994

Director, Chemical Business Unit

June 1990 to September 1992

- o Had profit/loss responsibility for the Chemical Business Unit. Responsibilities included worldwide Research and Development, Manufacturing, Engineering and Marketing/Sales.
- o Managed staff of more than 600 people, manufacturing throughput of $120MM, budget of more than $110MM, and sales in excess of $100MM.

John C. Landgraf

Director, Chemical Business Unit (cont).

- o Managed design, construction and start-up of $220MM grassroots chemical plant in Puerto Rico.

Director, Quality Assurance

June 1988 to June 1990

- Had worldwide responsibility for quality assurance, quality control, incoming quality assurance, quality engineering, documentation, research quality assurance and methods development.
- o Managed more than 200 people and had budget responsibility of more than $20MM.

Abbott Diagnostics Division

Strategic Market Planner

June 1987 to June 1988

- o Responsible for analyzing new products and business opportunities and making recommendations to senior management.

Vision Operations Manager

October 1984 to June 1987

- o Managed operations for Abbott's first diagnostic system designed for use in the doctor's office. Responsibilities included Manufacturing, Quality Assurance, Materials Management, and MIS staff of more than 125 people; which supported sales of $100MM.
- o Implemented a state of the art MRP and shop-floor control system.

Hepatitis Quality Operations Manager

October 1981 to October 1984

- o Managed quality assurance, including line inspection and final product approval.
- o Quality Control involved all aspects of incoming, in-process and final product release testing.
- o Responsible for 35 people and a budget of $1.7 million.

Manager, Standards and Specifications

January 1981 to October 1981

Section Head, Standards and Specifications

December 1978 to January 1981

Specification Writer

August 1977 to December 1978

- o Managed the documentation and labeling function for the Diagnostics Division.
- o Implemented a fully automated documentation system.

Inolex Corporation

Glenwood, IL

Research and Development

August 1975 to August 1977

- o Developed new microbiological diagnostic tests and culture media. Was also involved in sales training, technical service, and manufacturing support.

Education

M.B.A. Lake Forest Graduate School of Management, Lake Forest, IL

April 1992

M.S. Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL

August 1975

Major: Microbiology

B.S. Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL

May 1974

Major: Biology Minor: Chemistry

Board Positions

Northern Illinois University, Foundation Board

Northeastern Illinois Council Boy Scouts Of America Board

Mailista Board