

SUPPORTING DOCUMENT TREE SURVEY

Attached is a natural resource analysis of tree stands. It differentiates between significant trees, grove trees, mature woodlands and noxious species. Most of the trees on the property are noxious species and few, if any, significant trees lie within the developable area depicted in tab 5.

