Winchester Road, Libertyville, IL.

President at Grayslake Chamber Of Commerce

January 2002 - Present (12 years 4 months)

The Chamber of Commerce provides its members with many benefits and business services. These include joint advertising programs, newsletters, a business referral service, informational membership meetings, a

New Resident Welcome Program, seminars targeted to the specific needs of the small business owner and many opportunities for business-to-business networking. The Chamber also plans, organizes and funds community events that are designed to promote the Village and the businesses in it.

The Chamber of Commerce continues to expand its marketing programs designed to promote specific business districts and to heighten the awareness of this diverse, vibrant business community to the residents of Grayslake. The Chamber works closely with the Grayslake Economic Development Commission to ensure the health of our local business community and attract strong new businesses to the Grayslake area that will complement the existing businesses and serve the needs of the residents of Grayslake.

Executive Director at Lake County Farm Bureau

March 1998 - Present (16 years 2 months)

Originally, the Bureau was formed to help farmers improve their production practices. Today, the Lake County Farm Bureau® serves both rural and urban people who are interested in the production of a plentiful and safe food supply.

The Lake County Farm Bureau® is a voice for those having a vested interest in agriculture. The Board of Directors aims to meet the needs of it's members by working with elected officials, government agencies, educators, the public and the media. Membership in the Lake County Farm Bureau® reaches well beyond the boundaries of the county. Nationally the organization boasts nearly four million member families.

The Lake County Farm Bureau's® goal is to maintain an organization through which rural and urban people can think, act and work together to strengthen agriculture's role and influence. It exists to provide programs and services for each and every member.
