

James T. Lang, M.S., C.S.P. Area Manager

TECHNICAL EXPERIENCE:

More than twenty-five years of experience in Safety and Loss Control with Gallagher Bassett Services, Inc.

Provides loss control consulting to municipalities, educational institutions, industrial firms and captive insurance pools. Provides recommendations to clients to improve injury and illness rates, and relates the latest information regarding occupational safety and health. Conducts safety-training seminars for management, supervisors and employees.

Expertise in the area of Life Safety, Fire Prevention, and Emergency Planning. Develops and conducts training program for various organizations (including municipal, educational, and industrial clients) on fire prevention and detection methods. Provides evaluations of existing fire detection and suppression systems as well as development and/or revision of emergency planning and business interruption plans.

Retired part-time police officer, Villages of Kildeer and Deer Park, Illinois. Duties included officer training, accident investigation, and regular patrol activities.

Past experience as an EMP-P (Paramedic) for the Village of Lake Zurich, Illinois.

Former instructor for the Industrial Education Department, Lake Zurich Community Unit School District 95 (Illinois), and Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois.

EDUCATION:

Master of Science Degree in Technology (Safety)
Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois

Gallagher Bassett Services, Inc.
The Gallagher Centre, Two Pierce Place, Itasca, IL 60143

Bachelor of Arts Degree in Secondary Education (Industrial Technology)
University of Northern Colorado, Greeley, Colorado

Postgraduate work in Fire and Property Protection, Security, and Emergency Planning.

PROFESSIONAL
AFFILIATIONS:

- Certified Safety Professional (CSP)
- Certified Playground Safety Inspector (CPSI)
- Professional Member, American Society of Safety Engineers

SPECIAL SKILLS:

- Expertise in Security and Regulatory Compliance
- Specialization in Emergency Planning/Preparedness and Business Interruption Programs
- Authorized to teach OSHA's General Industry 10 and 30-hour courses.

LOCATION:

Itasca, Illinois