The Employee will not be allowed to raise any issues or grievances at Steps Two, Three, or Four that were not raised in the Employee's Step One Grievance.

to discuss and try to resolve the grievance. If a grievance is settled as a result of that meeting, the settlement shall be reduced to writing and signed by the parties. If no settlement is reached, the Executive Director (or their representative) shall give the Union the Employer's answer within ten (10) calendar days from the date the Executive Director (or their representative) received the Step Three grievance or, if applicable, within ten (10) days from the date of their meeting.

STEP FIVE: ARBITRATION If the answer at Step Four is unsatisfactory and the grievance is subject to arbitration, the grievance may be submitted by the Union for binding arbitration within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the Executive Director's answer at Step Four or the failure of the Executive Director to answer within ten (10) calendar days as set forth in Step Four. Only the Union may submit a grievance for binding arbitration. The Union must serve by Certified U.S. Mail the Director of Human Resources for Lake County with written notice of intent to appeal a grievance to Step Five arbitration within ten (10) calendar days. The Union may serve notice via personal service if it can secure the written acknowledgement of receipt by the Lake County Director of Human Resources.

The parties shall attempt to agree on an arbitrator within fourteen (14) calendar days. The arbitrator shall be notified of the arbitrator's selection by a joint letter from the employer and the Union, requesting that he set a time and place for the hearing, subject to the availability of the Employer and Union representatives and shall be notified of the issue that the parties agree will be subject the subject of arbitration.

In the absence of agreement on a neutral arbitrator, the parties shall file a joint request with the Federal Mediation Conciliation Services ("FMCS") for a panel of seven (7) arbitrators from which the parties shall select a neutral arbitrator. In the event that at the Lake County Director of Human Resources (or his representative) does not sign and submit said request to FMCS or return it to the Union fully signed within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt by the Lake County Director's representative, the Union may file a request that is consistent with the provisions of this subsection with the FMCS but signed only by the Union with notice to the Lake County Director of Human Resources. The parties agree to request the FMCS to limit the panel to member of the National Academy of Arbitrators who reside within a radius of 100 miles from the City of Chicago. Both the Lake County Director of Human Resources (or their representative) and the Union shall each have the right to reject one panel in its entirety, on written notice to the other, within fourteen (14) calendar days of its receipt and request that a new panel be submitted. The Lake County Director of Human Resources and the Union shall have the right alternately to strike names from the panel. One party shall strike a name, the other party shall then strike a name, and this procedure shall continue until one name remains. The person remaining shall be the arbitrator. The party shall participate in a coin toss to determine which party shall strike the first name from the panel.

The arbitrator shall be notified of his selection and shall be requested to set a time and place for the hearing, subject to the availability of Union and the Lake County Director's representatives.

Both parties agree to attempt to arrive at a joint stipulation of the facts and issues as outlined to be submitted to the arbitrator prior to the start of the hearing.

The Employer and the Union shall have the right to request the arbitrator to require the presence of witnesses. The arbitrator will determine at the time of the request or during the hearing if the witness's testimony is relevant and can be heard. Each party shall bear the expense of its own witnesses.

Questions of arbitrability shall be decided by the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall make a preliminary determination on the questions of arbitrability. Once a determination is made that the matter is arbitrable or if such preliminary determination cannot be reasonably made, the arbitrator shall neither amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to or subtract from the provisions of this Agreement.

All expenses and fees of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Employer and the Union.

If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record. If either party uses the services of an expert witness such cost shall be borne by that party.

Section 3. Time Limits

- a) Grievances may be withdrawn in writing at any step of the grievance procedure with prejudice. Grievances not submitted within the designated time limits listed in Section 2 will be treated as a withdrawn grievance.
- b) The time limits at any step or for Step Five arbitration may be extended in writing by mutual agreement of the parties involved at that particular step.

- c) The Employer's failure to respond within the time limits shall not find in favor of the grievant but shall automatically advance the grievance to the next step, except there will be no automatic advancement to Step Five.

The expenses and fees of the Arbitrator and the cost of the hearing room shall be shared equally by the parties. Nothing in this Article shall preclude the parties from agreeing to the appointment of a permanent Arbitrator(s) during the term of this Agreement or to use the expedited arbitration procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

The Arbitrator shall render his/her decision in writing to the parties within thirty (30) calendar days following the close of the arbitration hearing or the submittal date of briefs, whichever is later. The Arbitrator shall support his/her findings with a written opinion. The decision and opinion shall be based solely on and directed to the issue presented. The award shall clearly direct the parties as to what action(s) must be taken in order to comply with the award.

The decision and award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding to the Union, employee(s), and County. Such decision shall be within the scope and terms of this Agreement but shall not change any of its terms or conditions.

Section 4. Time Off

The grievant(s) and/or Union grievance representative(s) will be permitted reasonable time without loss of pay during their working hours to investigate and process grievances. No employee or Union representative shall leave his/her work to investigate, file or process grievances without first notifying and making mutual arrangements with his/her supervisor or designee as well as the supervisor of any unit to be visited, and such arrangements shall not be denied unreasonably.

ARTICLE 7 – DISCIPLINE

Section 1. Employee Discipline

The Employer shall not discipline or discharge any post-probationary employee without just cause. The Employer further agrees that disciplinary action shall be in a timely fashion.

Section 2. Corrective Discipline

The Employer agrees with the tenets of progressive and corrective discipline. The Employer's agreement to use progressive and corrective disciplinary action does not prohibit the Employer in any case from imposing discipline which is commensurate with the severity of the offense. Once the measure of discipline is determined and imposed the Employer shall not increase it for the particular act of misconduct unless new facts or circumstances become known, within a reasonable period of time.

Progressive discipline shall be cumulative and shall be based upon the administration date of the last action taken within the timeframes outlined below.

After twelve (12) months discipline that is minor in nature, which resulted in a verbal or written reprimand, shall not be used when determining the action to be taken. After 24 months discipline that is significant in nature, which resulted in a suspension of one (1) to five (5) days, shall not be used when determining the action to be taken. Major violations of policies, procedures and the bargaining agreement, which resulted in a suspension of more than five (5) days, shall not expire and may be used at any time when determining the action to be taken.

Section 3. Pre-disciplinary Meeting

Prior to administering any discipline or discharge, the Employer shall notify the Union of the meeting and attempt to meet with the union and employee, provided the employee wants the union present. The purpose of the meeting shall be to inform the employee of the reason for the contemplated disciplinary action. The employee shall be informed of his contract rights to Union representation. The employee and the Union representatives, if present, shall be given the opportunity to respond to the charges. A Union representative shall be available within twenty-four (24) hours of notification regardless of whether such notification is by means of oral, telephonic, or written communications.

Section 4. Right to Union Representation

An employee shall have the right to Union representation at any investigatory interview if employee requests such representation and if the employee has reasonable grounds to believe that the interview may lead to disciplinary action.

ARTICLE 8 – LABOR –MANAGEMENT CONFERENCES

Section 1. Labor-Conferences

The Union and the Employer mutually agree that in the interest of efficient management and harmonious employee relations, meetings shall be held between Union and Employer representatives when appropriate. Such meetings shall be scheduled within one week of either party submitting an agenda to the other, or at a time mutually agreed upon by the parties, and shall be limited to:

- (A) Discussion of the implementation and general administration of this Agreement;
- (B) A sharing of general information of interest to the parties;
- (C) The identification of possible health and safety concerns.

A Union representative and/or Union Representatives may attend these meetings. The Employer may assign appropriate management personnel to attend.

Section 2. Purpose

It is expressly understood and agreed that such meetings shall be exclusive of the grievance procedure. Such meeting shall be chaired by the Employer representative and there shall be no loss of wages for attendance by Union Stewards and/or affected bargaining unit employees. Grievances and arbitrations shall not be discussed at such meetings.

ARTICLE 9 – LAY-OFF

Section 1. Definition and Notice

In the event it becomes necessary for the Employer to lay off a non-probationary employee, the Employer shall give the Union at least thirty (30) days' notice of the layoff except in emergency situations wherein such period of notice may be reduced.

Section 2. General Procedures

In the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off in inverse order of seniority as defined in Article 10 by position. The employer may lay off employees out of this inverse order of seniority if it reasonably determines that retention of a less senior employee is necessary to perform the work based on relative skills and abilities. Reasons that would justify laying employees off out of inverse order of seniority include but are not limited to significant differences in performance evaluation, the less senior employee possesses demonstrated skills and/or abilities needed for operational purposes and/or disciplinary action taken within the last year of the notification to lay-off.

Prior to laying off any employees of the bargaining unit, employees serving a 12-month probationary period, within the Animal Control Department of the Health Department shall be laid off or terminated, as the case may be.

If an employee is not laid off in inverse order of seniority, the affected employee may challenge the reasonableness of their specific lay off through the grievance procedure identified in Article 9 of this Agreement.

Section 3. Recall of Laid-off Employees

The names of laid-off employees shall be placed on a layoff list for twelve (12) months. Employees shall be recalled in seniority order and/or in the same manner they were laid off.

- B. No Guarantee of Work - Nothing in this Article shall be construed as a guarantee of hours of work. This Article is intended only as a basis for computing overtime consistent with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. Section 2: Hours of Work Employees covered by this agreement shall work a 37.5-hour week with seven and one half (7.5) hour days which will include a thirty- minute unpaid lunch.

The Employer maintains the right to adjust hours of work based on operational and program demands that may result in flexing hours of work. If an employee's hours are to be flexed, the Employer shall meet with the employee any time during the prior workday to explain the reasons.

Section 3: Overtime Compensation

A bargaining unit employee shall be paid at one and one half his/her regular hourly rate of pay when required to work in excess of 40 hours in a work week. Only actual hours of work will be counted toward the calculation of overtime.

Full time employees who work 1 or more additional hours in a day, over their normal work hours; and over 37.5 hours of their normal work week may convert these hours into compensatory time. All compensatory time accruals must be liquidated in cash at straight time or in time off by the end of Lake County's fiscal year. Leave time (i.e., vacation, sick, holiday, etc.) does not qualify as time worked. Thereby, such hours will not be included or considered to determine overtime or compensatory time eligibility.

Compensatory time may be granted at such times that are mutually agreed upon between the involved Employee and a supervisor; permission to utilize compensatory time shall not be unreasonably denied by the supervisor if the operational requirements will not be adversely affected. Compensatory time shall be granted in fifteen (15) minute blocks of the Employee's normal tour of duty.

All compensatory time must be used or cashed out by the end of the first pay period in November of every year. Any unused compensatory time shall be paid out of the second paycheck in November.

Section 5. Overtime Distribution

The parties recognize that they have an obligation to the community to provide services and that this obligation on occasion may require the working of overtime. To meet that objective, overtime shall be compulsory in emergency situations. If an insufficient number of volunteers respond, the employer shall assign the remaining overtime on a rotating basis. The same is as follows for mandatory overtime. Request for volunteers and overtime assignments will be made on a rotating basis. However, the Employer retains the authority to select specific Employees for overtime assignments based upon specific skills, ability and experience needed for the completion of a particular assignment.
