

KRISTINE SMITH

Skills Summary

Technical and nontechnical writing. Involved in lab-scale, pilot, and large-scale development and manufacturing of pharmaceutical products. Tested R&D, in-process, and stability samples utilizing analytical methods including GC, mass spectroscopy, HPLC, dissolution, titration.

Education

B.S. Chemistry-University of South Florida, Tampa FL (1981)

Experience

AbbVie/Abbott Laboratories (Retired)

September 1987 – July 2013

Tested in-process and finished pharmaceutical products and stability samples in QA/QC laboratories in accordance with GLP. Involved in process and product development of tableted and liquid products in accordance with GMP and other applicable regulations. Supervised and provided support for career development of direct report. Authored and co-authored scientific presentations and in-house reports.

Writer

November 1999 – Present

Published author of novels and short stories. Experience in public speaking and moderating panel discussions at literary conferences.

Volunteer Experience

Chicago Botanic Garden (2019): provided information about plants and plant care to the public as a member of the Plant Information Department

Sierra Club: Past and Current Member of District Lobbying Team