

Anthony J. Bilotti, Ph. D., M.P.H.

Director of Environmental Services

In a professional career of thirty-five years, Dr. Bilotti has advised government and private sector clients in the planning and implementation of health and environmental initiatives, industrial and commercial redevelopment, transportation improvements, and professional training curricula. He was also Adjunct Assistant Professor of Public Health and Director of the University of Illinois at Chicago's Midwest Training Center for Environmental and Industrial Health. He had been Senior Planner with a nationally recognized architecture/engineering firm, managing the conduct of environmental assessments associated with major infrastructure projects.

Education:

Ph.D., Health Policy Analysis, University of Illinois at Chicago, 1997

M.P.H. Environmental Health, University of Illinois at Chicago, 1986

B.A., Environmental Studies, Northeastern Illinois University, 1980

Training/Continuing Education:

USGBC, LEED Associate, 2011

Publications:

"Continuity of Operations Planning", with Charles John, Kevin Croke, and Steven Mier, The Military Engineer, Vol. 658, March-April 2009.

"Current and Potential Asbestos Hazard Assessment: Effects of Inspectors' Training and Professional Backgrounds", by Edward Mensah, Anthony Bilotti, and Michael Cailas, Journal of Environmental Systems, Vol. 24, No. 2, 1996

"Defining and Measuring Health over Life", by Lyndon Babcock and Anthony Bilotti and "Design of Contingent Valuation Approaches to Serious Illness", by Robert Fabian, Lynn Babcock, Anthony Bilotti, and George Tolley, in Valuing Health for Policy: An Economic Approach, edited by George Tolley et al, University of Chicago Press, 1994.

Affiliations/Memberships:

City of Highwood, Plan Commission, 2015

City of Highland Park, Plan Commission, 2013-2014

Commissioner, East Skokie Drainage District, Lake County, Illinois 2007-2012

City of Highland Park, Environmental Commission 2004-2006

Society of American Military Engineers (SAME) – Lake Michigan Post, Board Member; Chairman, Emergency Preparedness and Homeland Security Committee, 2007-11

Professional Experience:

1993-Present	Environmental and Transportation Services Director, Kowalenko Consulting Group, Inc.
2007- 2012	Adjunct Assistant Professor, School of Public Health, University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC) ; 2007-2012 Team Leader, Private Sector Integration Project, FEMA Regional Catastrophic Preparedness Grant Program, 2011-12
1991-1992	Senior Environmental Planner, Meridian Engineers & Planners, Inc. , Chicago, IL
1987-1992	Co-Director, Midwest Training Center for Environmental and Industrial Health, UIC School of Public Health, Chicago, IL
1986-1992	Senior Research Specialist, Dept. of Health Resources Management
1986-1987	Manager, Midwest Training Center for Environmental and Industrial Health
1984-1985	Research Assistant, Div. of Environmental and Occupational Health-UIC,
1980-1984	Environmental Planner, CRS Sirrine Engineering, Inc., Chicago, IL