9. County Administrator's Report

9.1 15-0718

Report on the impact of juror legislation.

Gary Gordon, Finance and Administrative Services, reported that new legislation has passed, increasing the fee paid to jurors and was also coupled with a reduction in the number of jurors needed for civil trials.

There is an amendment to the legislation that was created by the County to reduce the rates paid to the jurors and receive credit for certain expenses paid for the jurors, such as meals and parking, however; the amendment has not yet passed.

Mr. Gordon added the reduction of jurors in the original legislation will require the County Board to approve an alternate juror fee. If the amendment to the original legislation does not pass, the County Board will have to look at increasing the fee for an alternate juror. The Finance and Administrative Services Department and other departments will continue to look into what amount is an appropriate fee for the alternate juror.

Discussion ensued regarding the different fees paid for jurors.

A motion was made that this communication or report be presented.

9.2 15-0703

Presentation and update on juvenile cases, the Guardian ad Litem (GAL), and Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) services.

Donna Jo Maki, Executive Justice Council, presented an update on juvenile court cases. The majority of the juvenile cases last year include adoption, delinquency, truancy, and abuse and neglect.

Ms. Maki expounded on the Juvenile Court process for abused or neglected children. A child enters Juvenile Court when someone reports the abuse or neglect to the Department of Child and Family Services (DCFS), after the report is investigated by DCFS and abuse is suspected, the case is referred to the Lake County State's Attorney's Office who also conducts an investigation. The child is represented in Juvenile Court by a Guardian ad Litem (GAL). A GAL is an attorney appointed to provide independent legal counsel for the children.

Keith Grant, Public Defender's Office, introduced Kathy Gordon, Public Defender's Office, who gave a description of the GAL division's duties. There are two court rooms that handle the cases of child abuse and neglect. A GAL is appointed to each courtroom and supervised by Mr. Grant. Under the Juvenile Court Act, the first time a child enters Juvenile Court, a GAL must be appointed, and are required to represent the child for as long as the case is in the system. Under the Juvenile Court Act if the GAL is also an Attorney one person can serve as both the GAL advocate and an attorney who can file motions, make arguments to the courts, and call witnesses on behalf of the child.

Ms. Gordon added when she interviews a child she describes her two roles as the attorney she represents to the court what the child wants and what their wishes are, and as the GAL she gives the court a recommendation on what she believes is in the child's best interest.

Ms. Maki, reported on a presentation comparing CASA Lake County with CASA programs in nearby counties on case filings, ages of children served, population and the amount of staff including volunteers. Other comparisons were what the CASA organizations receive from the counties such as funds, office space, and parking spaces.

Currently there are several counties that have imposed the 2013 legislations allowing for CASA fees between $10 and $30. At this moment the Lake County State's Attorney's office is looking into appropriate cases that can be charged the CASA fees. Lake County provides CASA Lake County, with 200 square feet of office space for the CASA supervisors, Office Manager, and active case reports. The office is located adjacent to the hearing rooms at Depke Juvenile Court Complex. In addition CASA Lake County applies and receives CDBG funding.

Discussion ensued regarding assessing CASA fees.

Terri Greenburg, CASA Lake County, added throughout the country CASA programs receive state funding, and Illinois is one of six states that does not fund CASA. Legislation was passed in 2013 by the governor to help CASA programs with in the state of Illinois.

A motion was made that this item be presented.
