Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest

When responding to these additional questions, please keep in mind that when they refer to "you", that includes a spouse or any member of your immediate or extended family who may hold a position, receive income or have an interest in an entity doing business with the agency, board or commission you are seeking an appointment to.

Do you have any interests (financial, personal, family, etc.) that could lead to, or be perceived as, a conflict of interest?

Do you hold any position (include title or description) or receive income in excess of $1,200 from any entity doing business with the agency, board or commission you are seeking an appointment to?

Do you have any ownership interest in excess of $5,000 fair market value or from which dividends in excess of $1,200 were received in the preceding year from any entity doing business with the agency, board or commission you are seeking an appointment to?

Have you rendered any professional services to the agency, board or commission for which you are seeking an appointment from which income exceeding $5,000 was received during the preceding calendar year?

Certification

By clicking "Submit" below, I hereby certify that the foregoing responses are true, accurate, and complete. I agree that any misstatement, misrepresentation, or omission of fact may result in my immediate disqualification for appointment. I authorize Lake County to review my credit and criminal history (if necessary) and/or request additional information about my background.
