7.16 19-1413

Discussion of regulatory options for regulating animal exhibitions in unincorporated Lake County.

Planning, Building and Development Director Eric Waggoner and Krista Braun from Planning Building and Development discussed regulatory options for animal exhibitions in unincorporated Lake County. While the State does not give a legal right to ban animal exhibitions, regulations can be put in place to ensure animals are treated in a humane manner.

Exclusions would be added for animals used for educational purposes or agricultural uses.

While there currently are no instances within unincorporated Lake County where animals are used for entertainment purposes, the Committee discussed putting regulations in place to show the County is concerned about animal welfare.
