

Joshua M. Fischer

President & Owner of Fischer Paper Products, Inc

Josh Fischer is the President & Owner of Fischer Paper Products, Inc., a manufacturer of paper packaging for the foodservice industry, located in Antioch, IL founded in 1972. As a lifetime resident of Lake County, born and raised Grayslake and 1997 graduate of Grayslake high school, he was never far from Fischer's facilities. For over a decade now, Josh Fischer has led nearly 100 employees at Fischer Paper Products, and is dedicated to ensuring that they grow, improve and succeed together. Currently residing in Lindenhurst with his wife Nikki and three children, Riley, Anna, and Alex, Josh is ensuring success for Fischer generations to come with multiple investments into his company's future, including a new facility located in Antioch, IL that will allow for continued growth in Lake County, IL.

Company Highlights

- ✓ 3rd Generation Family Owned Business
- ✓ 100 employees with an average tenure of 8 years, 9 months
- ✓ Current customers including In-N-Out, Panda Express, Tyson, and R.J. Schinner
- ✓ Produces over 2 billion items each year
- ✓ Going into 4th year of GFSI certification
- ✓ Committed manufacturer of environmentally friendly and sustainable product
- ✓ Brand new facility built in Antioch, IL in 2020

Work History

Fischer Paper Products, Inc.	Antioch, IL
President & Owner – 2012 to Present
Executive Vice President – 2010 to 2011
VP of Administration – 2008 to 2009
Operations Engineer – September 2004 to December 2007
Layne-Western Co.	Aurora, IL
Contracting Engineer, Water Resource Division – May 2002 to August 2004
Fischer Paper Products, Inc.	Antioch, IL
Project Manager – January 2002 to May 2002

Education

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
BS in General Engineering in 2001
Executive MBA in 2010