RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, in the late 1970's, concerned citizens organized to patrol neighborhoods and notify the Sheriff's Office of suspicious activity; and

WHEREAS, soon after, the citizens issued a plea to the Lake County Sheriff to merge as one group and to be deputized; and

WHEREAS, in 1978, sixteen members were sworn in as the first Reserve Deputies of Lake County; and

WHEREAS, today, the Deputy Reserve Unit today consists of 50 dedicated members who volunteer their time to augment the Sheriff's Department during natural and man-made emergencies, traffic and crown control, searches for missing persons, crime scene evidence search, and provide assistance to local municipal police department and charitable organization functions; and

WHEREAS, Reserve Deputy recruits initially receive approximately 145 hours of training over a five to six month period with refresher training on a yearly basis in various areas; and

WHEREAS, men and women volunteer as Reserve Deputies out of a sense of community responsibility, and last year, volunteers contributed over 17,975 hours to the County, resulting in a savings to taxpayers of more than $417,000; and
