Legislation Text

File #: 23-0400, Version: 1

Special recognition acknowledging March 18 as National Public Defender Day in Lake County.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

WHEREAS, March 18 is National Public Defender Day celebrating the landmark U.S. Supreme Court ruling of Gideon v Wainwright in 1963; and

WHEREAS, this decision changed the Sixth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution to include the guaranteed right to legal counsel for all those facing imprisonment, even if they can't afford to hire a lawyer; and

WHEREAS, the Gideon v Wainwright decision inspired the creation of public defense agencies across the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Lake County Public Defender's Office was created in 1972 when the first Public Defender was appointed; and

WHEREAS, since 1972, there have been five public defenders appointed; and

WHEREAS, Joy Gossman is the current Lake County Public Defender. She is also the first woman and has served the longest in that role; and

WHEREAS, the Lake County Public Defender's Office currently has 48 employees, including support staff, social workers, investigators, and attorneys; and

WHEREAS, public defenders and public defense professionals are part of a defense community for those in need, providing important and excellent work every day in both criminal and civil cases; and

WHEREAS, the Bureau of Justice believes the work of public defense lawyers is vital to communities.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RECOGNIZED, that this County Board of Lake County, Illinois, thanks the entire Lake County Public Defender's Office for their work serving those in need of their services.

DATED at Waukegan, Illinois on March 14, 2023.
